

Online MPH Class Profile 2024*

Our online and part-time Master of Public Health (MPH) has intakes throughout the year. Students study in diverse and global cohorts that provide the opportunity to share experiences of different cultures, organisations and challenges – and to learn about public health in different contexts.

Job roles include:

General Practitioner / Doctor
Medical Officer
Senior Nutrition Expert
Occupational Therapist
Community Pharmacist
Emergency Health Coordinator

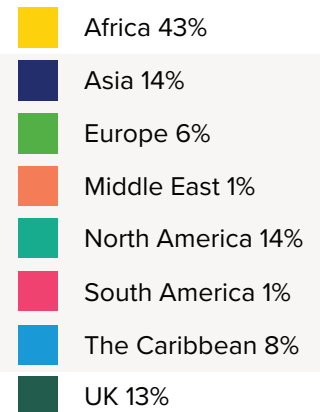

Clinical Director
Deputy Programme Manager
Head of Border Health
Paediatric Consultant
Critical Care Nurse
Senior Project Officer

Nationality by region:

34 nationalities

Global employers include:

IFRC

One World

Partners in Health

World Vision

Action
Against Hunger

International
Rescue Committee

UNHCR

UNICEF

World Health
Organisation

Medecins
Sans Frontiers

The University of Liverpool online MPH programme is fully accredited by APHEA (Agency for Public Health Education Accreditation). APHEA is an independent body which is committed to assuring and improving the quality of public health educational activities throughout Europe and the globe.